Background of G2C initiative at VSU

- VSU is part of the USG's first cohort to participate in the John N. Gardner Institute's (JNGI) Gateways to Completion (G2C) study.
- G2C is designed to assist institutions in researching factors related to reduced student success, developing and implementing a plan to address the identified factors, and evaluating the impact of the implemented plan on improving teaching, learning, and student success.
- In the fall of 2015, VSU chose to

G2C & student retention/success at VSU

- The Valdosta State University (VSU) mission has three parts: student, university, and region. The student mission states (VSU, 2014):
  - To provide a diverse student population with an inspired education, a safe learning environment, a nurturing community, and a wealth of experience that assists students in molding their futures in a creative, conscious, and caring fashion while preparing them to be lifelong learners who will meet the needs of a changing global society.
- VSU's strategic plan 2013-2019 consists of 5 goals related to student success, financial stability, mission engagement, creativity
