4 STUDENT NARRATIVE (to be written by each student participant):

The student nanative will provide a brief summary of the research project to be completed by the undergraduate student and an explanation of how he/she will be participating in the research, such as collect the data, analyzing results, maintain confidentiality when appropriate, etc. The maximum length of each student manative is 2 pages, single-spaced

5 IIEMZEDBUDGET (to be written by faculty mentor(s)):

Provide a detailed budget using the downloadable "Budget Template." Please review the BSRI Guidelines regarding allowability of costs before completing the budget. The budget total may not exceed the maximum.

Undergraduate Research and Professor of Physics, djdrake@valdosta.edu, ext. 4852. Questions about the BSRI program can also be submitted to Jan Drake. Please note that all applications must be submitted by the deadline of December 15, 2021 at 5:00 PMEST. No late applications will be accepted.